PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS

President Tom Borlund

In August 2013 as our luncheon/meeting at Oakland Manor came to a close, a former Chapter President from way back stopped on his way out, looked at me, and said "This was our best meeting--ever." He later explained that the food was outstanding, the setting was perfect, we had our act together, and the speaker's topic was relevant and well presented. And before we left Oakland Manor that day, we arranged to come back every third Saturday in August--we've been locked in for a year at this venue. So it will be the same setting; the same menu (why not?); another relevant topic that should be of great interest to everyone, Camp Campbell; and a historian/author/professor highly sought-after as a speaker to present it, William Turner. We understand he is so popular that when people find out that Mr. Turner is speaking somewhere, they come from miles around just to hear him. This could be another best-ever, and we intend to film it for the Fort Campbell Historical Foundation and Wings of Liberty Museum.

The Chapter Directory published two years ago for 2013-2014 contains various errors such as incorrect addresses, telephone numbers and e-mail addresses. For the next directory, to be published at the end of 2014, an attachment to this newsletter provides each member the opportunity to verify or correct contact information on the current roster. The attachment also serves to encourage each member, on a more individual basis, to contribute to our own local wounded-warrior project--Soldiers and Families Embraced (SAFE).

The Director of SAFE, Reverend Jodi McCullah, spoke at our Chapter meeting two years ago. Last year SAFE had a fundraiser at the F&M Bank in October that we supported with ten $100 donations for ten seats at a MOAA table for breakfast. At the beginning of this year we put SAFE on our web page as a permanent link and identified increased funding support as a priority.

The time to begin that is now, with participation from our full membership the key. Two events down the road to note: for the October Chapter meeting, Jodi McCullah will be the guest speaker and will be accompanied by at least one person helped by SAFE; and in November, SAFE will have an annual fundraiser similar to last year's--date and venue to be announced. We should have at least one MOAA table with ten seats @ $100 per person. Checks can be for $10, $20, $50 whatever a person wishes, but a check for $100 will automatically be considered for a seat at the fundraiser. All checks should have (MOAA) after contribution or donation in the lower left hand corner so SAFE can tell us how many came in and for how much. The mailing address for checks is: SAFE, 510 College Street, Clarksville, TN 37040.

A closing comment: Jodi McCullah recently told us that the largest increase in groups needing their help is among children of military families. In that connection the new SAFE logo shown here is a timely change.

PREVIOUS MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

Thirty-two members and twelve guests enjoyed a buffet luncheon (with three entrees, including schnitzel) at the Sportsman's Lodge, Fort Campbell on Saturday 19 July 2014. As usual, the food was plentiful and tasty. Of the fifty-three that attended, twelve were from KY and forty-one were from TN.

Chapter member CW5 Robert Huffman gave an interesting presentation on the activities of the Chief of Staff of the Army's Retiree Council, with special emphasis on the Soldier for Life initiative--Once a Soldier, Always a Soldier.

Several new members were in attendance and were introduced. We hope they will become regulars.

[widow of MAJ Selman L. Bass, USA
(Ret)]

CPT Derek Thompson, USA Active-duty and his wife, Jennifer.

CW4 James K. Church, USA (Ret)

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The executive committee discussed how we could encourage more competition for our local scholarships which turned on communicating directly with the JROTC commanders as well as through the guidance counselors. Directory sales have started and will be ongoing through August. There will be an appeal to the members to validate their contact information before the directory is published. Members utilizing the website and direct emails have helped reduce the volume of phone calls. Donations to worthy causes were discussed, and it was voted to contribute $250.00 to the Tennessee Fisher House supporting the Veterans Administration. The effort to get more Tennessee-region membership on the National board was discussed, and instructions will be put out electronically.
