Don Stewart County Veteran representative

Notification will be made at the October meeting.

We received notification from National MOAA of scholarship winners. They will receive letters notifying them of a recognition luncheon.

A short discussion ensued about creating a policy for sustaining members who were either incapacitated or limited income.

CDR Adames said we had received a letter from one of our members currently stationed in Kuwait passing condolences for Frank Pierce.

He stated that national MOAA will start a newsletter in mid-October and options as to what you want to receive. He also stated that MOAA Travel should be considered when making travel plans.

LCOL JT SMITH stated that he felt we should start doing more social events instead of just having meetings. Members agreed that this would be a good idea and we should start exploring options.

CPT Eddie Sumblar gave the closing prayer.

Meeting adjourned at 1350.

CDR Steve Singleton, Sec
